RECOGNITION OF PRIOR LEARNING AND CREDIT TRANSFER

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) involves the assessment of previously unrecognised skills and knowledge that an individual has achieved outside the formal education and training system. It assesses the individual's non-formal and informal learning to determine the extent to which that individual has achieved the required learning outcomes, competency outcomes, or standards for entry to, and/or partial or total completion of, a qualification (AQF).

Credit Transfer means granting of credits against an equivalent and nationally recognised unit of competency completed as part of earlier studies.Credit transfer does not involve assessment and is granted on determination of equivalency between two units of competency. Unit selection and suitability is guided by packaging rules of the relevant course or qualification.

Students may apply for RPL/Credit Transfer prior to or immediately after formal enrolment but prior to the facilitated delivery of units .

For more information students can visit the Westin College's website or contact our Student Support Officer.
